About this app →

The employee self-service module of the 'Time Track Web'- a web based application..........just took a giant leap!

Employees are no more restricted to accessing their attendance data thru a laptop or desktop only. One can now view/access crucial data such as their attendance, leave registers, leave applications, notice boards thru the mobile app. And yes a manager can also view his teams attendance at his convenience. The new mobile app is as powerful as the employee self service module with all the process that are critical for ease of work flow....
